

Are foundations under the ramp necessary?

At Easy Care Systems, foundations are typically not necessary for most Rapid Ramp installations, as the ramps are designed to be stable and secure without them. However, in certain situations—such as on soft or uneven ground—foundations or additional support may be required to ensure maximum stability and safety. Our team will assess the site during installation and determine if any foundation work is needed for your specific ramp setup.

