

Question: What features should I look for in a shower chair for disabled users?

Answer: Key features include a durable frame, non-slip feet, easy-to-clean materials, and appropriate seat shapes for hygiene (like the Freeway Horseshoe Seat). For disabled users, chairs with adjustable heights, armrests, and backrests offer additional support and convenience.

Contact us for more information and pricing.

