

Question: What is the difference between a shower chair and a shower stool?

Answer: A shower chair typically has a backrest and armrests for added support and safety, while a shower stool is more compact and lacks these features. The Freeway Shower Chair Seats are full chairs, providing greater stability and comfort compared to stools.

Contact us for more information and pricing.

