

Who uses a bidet?

A bidet is commonly used across Europe, the Middle East and South-East Asia as a hygienic choice and cultural norm. However, it is most commonly used by Muslims as a religious requirement. Bidets can also be a wonderful choice for people who have recently given birth, healing from surgeries or for various other medical needs.